

Saturday 28th November 2009

Cecil Court's Festive Celebration

Join us for our first Christmas festival, with events throughout the day

To be announced by London's Town Crier, Peter Moore

- * Seasonal music, courtesy of the Regent Hall brass band of the Salvation Army who will be playing in Cecil Court between 12.30-2.30pm
- * Guest appearances by Wrumblesnore Snoreyteller with his Wizard Tales for the Attentive Offspring of Well-behaved Adults by the Viceroy of Versatility himself, Larry Barnes, the Pearly King of Thornton Heath
- * Book signings at Goldsboro Books - including cult author & singer Giles Kristian
- * Celebrate an Italian Christmas at the Italian Bookshop & win a week in Venice. Enter the draw online: www.veniceitalianschool.com/concorsovenezia The winner will be announced in the afternoon. Buona Fortuna!
- * Create your very own Bobby Dazzler Doll at Tenderpixel Gallery. Sign up online: www.tenderproduct.com & create the ultimate Bobby Dazzler!
- * Readings at Amuti 23 by Billy Childish & poet Jeremy Reed and the Ginger Light
- * Free mini Tarot readings at Watkins Esoteric Bookshop by resident psychic Simon Krishna
- * Themed window displays: authentic film & theatrical jewellery at Christopher St James; 'Alice in Wonderland' at Marchpane and a celebration of 'Pantomime and a Victorian Christmas' at Pleasures of Past Times
- * A 3pm lecture by author John Scott-Morgan at Motor Books on London Railways & the Underground
- * Special discounts at several shops

Cecil Court, the Londoner's destination for books, maps, prints & unusual items: books old & new; rare & secondhand; art, antiques & bygones; jewellery, coins & collector's items.

Perfect gifts for everyone on your Christmas shopping list!

For more information visit: www.cecilcourt.co.uk